Dialogue A.

A: Oh, it's so nice to see you! How was the flight?

B: Fine, but it was a long one.

A: I bet it was. The flight from Australia can't have been short. And you arrived almost an hour later than was scheduled.

B: Yeah. It was because of the delay in Hong Kong. The weather was awful...

A: I see. But it's all over and you're here at last. Let me help you with your luggage.

B: Thanks.

Dialogue B.

A: Excuse me, can I have the key to room 209?

B: Yes, here it is.

A: And one more thing.

B: Yes?

A: I'm checking out tomorrow at noon. Can I leave my suitcase in the luggage room till 5 or 6 pm?

B: Yes, you can, no problem.

Dialogue C.

A: I'm sorry, but food and drinks are not allowed in the reading room.

B: Sorry, I just wanted to have a sandwich... but I'm already putting it back into my bag. By the way, where can I find something on the history of aviation? I'm writing a report on it.

A: The books on that topic are displayed over there, next to the exit table. But if you need something specific, I would advise you to use our electronic catalogue. It's there, in the corner of the room.

B: Yes, I will. Thank you.

Dialogue D.

A: Excuse me, I'm looking for a Sports Goods shop...

B: Oh, there's one on this floor — it sells sportswear of all kinds, and the other one is on the ground floor — it offers different sports equipment, sleeping bags, tents and so on.

A: Thank you. I need a good sports bag.

B: To the ground floor then. You can't miss it — it's next to the cafeteria and there is a large poster advertising sports gear.

A–5: Nice to see you... How was the flight... you arrived later.

B–3: can I have a key to the room... Can I leave my suitcase in the luggage room.

Пояснение.

Speaker A. when I have free time I don't like staying at home. I enjoy visiting different interesting places and learn new things about history, art, science or whatever. Excursions are popular cause they are more convenient and pleasant way of getting information. A qualified guide can tell you lots of amazing things you would never find out on your own.

Speaker B. I'm not an art lover and I prefer picnics to museums and excursions. However on Saturday we had a very nice trip to a nearby town. I didn't know there are so many historical buildings. We went there by bus and on the way the guide gave us some amazing facts and legends about the town. Then we visited the central historical museum.

Speaker C. when our teacher announces us some excursions or museums I try to escape it. I don't like museums. Probably because my mum is a tour guide. When I was little she took me to museums a lot. I was too little for the fine art or historical artifacts. I wanted to play, not to admire the exhibits. And I was afraid of the museum keepers that always hushed me.

Speaker D. this museum was opened only 2 years ago. Our students and teachers find it very amusing. It's a museum of mistakes. We collect the funny mistakes that our students do in their essays. Usually teachers or students themselves brings us the pages and ask us to display them. Most of the exhibits are anonymous but some of the authors want their names to be written beside their mistake.

Speaker E. I enjoy visiting different museums but the problem is that there is no museums in our little town. I'm not the only person who lives in a new place. I suggest we arrange a global internet base museum. All the existence museums would make virtual expositions and everyone should have access to whatever museum they want to and can order the virtual excursions for themselves.

A–1: I don't like staying at home... learning history, science... excursions are popular because they are convenient and pleasant way of getting information...

B–6: I prefer picnics to the museums. However, last Saturday we ad a very nice trip... by bus... legends about the town...

C–2: I don't like museums... My mum is a tour guide... She took me to museums a lot... but I wanted to play... I don't like museums...

D–5: two years ago... the museum of mistakes... students make them...

E–4: there are no museums in our little town... order vertual excursions...

Mia and her friends are arranging a party because

- 1) they usually have parties every Saturday.
- 2) they want to celebrate the beginning of a new school year.
- 3) they want to help the new students feel comfortable in class.
- 4)

Пояснение.

Mia: Hi, Nick! What are you doing in school on Saturday afternoon? You should be somewhere else, enjoying your weekend.

Nick: Hi, Mia. I wanted to ask you the same question.

Mia: I've got some very important business here. We are arranging a party for the newcomers.

Nick: Newcomers?

Mia: Yes. There are four new students in our class this year. They are ... kind of shy. And we decided to give a special party for them, to make them feel more at home here.

Nick: It's a bit unusual for teenagers to support shy newcomers... But it's really cool! Good luck with that!

Mia: Thanks.

Nick: And what kind of a party do you want it to be? A fancy dress party?

Mia: That's a brilliant idea! We were thinking about an ordinary party with music, chatting, dancing, some pizza and drinks. But your idea is great! When you have a mask on you feel freer and much less shy, don't you?

Nick: Well, yes, I think so. And...?

Mia: When people are wearing masks, they pretend to be strangers, and the new people stop feeling like strangers in this situation. They make friends more easily.

Nick: You're probably right. Good luck with it once again. And...

Mia: Yes?

Nick: You haven't told me anything about your holidays yet. I heard you were abroad.

Mia: Yes, I was. I went to France for a couple of weeks.

Nick: To learn French? To a language school?

Mia: Oh, no. My parents and I went there as tourists. I'd never been to Paris before, though my grandmother comes from France. But we have no relatives left there now.

Nick: Did you stay in a hotel?

Mia: Yes, in the centre of Paris. It was a very convenient location and we managed to see lots of interesting places in the city and around it!

Nick: I see. And the rest of the summer?

Mia: Oh, nothing special, just routine.

Nick: Didn't you go anywhere else apart from France?

Mia: No. The seaside was out as the trip to Paris ate up a considerable part of the family budget. We only went to the country for barbeque parties three or four times, we weren't very lucky with the weather.

Nick: Oh yes, the summer was rainy and really cold. The weather people kept saying that the unusually low temperatures would get higher in a week or so but their promises never came true.

Mia: No, they didn't. Unfortunately. But never mind. That kind of weather gave me a chance to take up a new hobby.

Nick: What is it? Knitting, photography or collecting celebrity posters?

Mia: None of them. You'll never guess. It's baking biscuits and making cakes.

Nick: Oh, it sounds much more original than posters! And much tastier!

Прочитайте тексты и установите соответствие между текстами A–G и заголовками 1–8. В ответ запишите цифры, в порядке, соответствующем буквам. Используйте каждую цифру только один раз. В задании есть один лишний заголовок.

1. A talisman for luck

3. The modern side of the country
4. Useful in many ways
5. A country profile
6. A false stereotype
7. Opportunities for different sports

A. Thanks to television and films, Scotland is often seen by the rest of the world as a magical country, a land of misty mountains and the home of a lake creature called Nessie. This is the image most people have in mind. The truth, however, is completely different from the way the world thinks of Scotland. You may be surprised to find out that most Scots live in the lowlands and don't believe in Nessie.

B. Scotland is much more than green hills and picturesque valleys. It's dynamic and cosmopolitan, with a colourful history of invention and innovation. It's the home of big businesses and a centre of new medical and scientific development. Each year, it hosts the world's biggest contemporary arts festivals. Scotland is an exciting place to live in, particularly for a young person.

C. Scottish heather, a small bush with flowers, is the floral symbol of the country. The colour of the flowers usually varies from purple to lilac, but they can also be white. In the past, the Scots believed that they would never be captured by enemies and would win victories if they wore white heather. Today, when getting married, girls add white heather to bouquets to bring fortune to their family.

D. Heather has grown in Scotland as far back as its history goes. This has turned it into a kind of household good. Heather honey is rich in minerals, and was traditionally used in medicinal drinks. Thousands of years ago, dried heather was used to make perfumes, and the tough stems were used to make ropes. On many of the northern Scottish islands, heather played a major role in the construction of houses.

E. Scotland is an excellent destination for open-air activities all year round. Its lakes and coastline are ideal for boating and rowing and have some of the best sea-kayaking in the world. The rivers are perfect for fishing and the mountains are wonderful for hill climbing and skiing. Scotland is also good for walkers. You can enjoy easy family walks or more difficult mountain hikes.

F. The Highland Games in Scotland date from long before Scotland's written history. The various athletics allowed men to demonstrate their physical power and the skills needed for battle and survival. The Games today still include the athletic competitions in their original form together with dancing contests. All the competitors wear kilts. Traditional bagpipe music accompanies all the events.

G. Scotland is a country that is part of the United Kingdom, occupying the northern third of the island of Great Britain. Edinburgh, the country's capital and second largest city, is one of Europe's financial centres. The population of the country is a little over 5 million people. The currency is the pound sterling although the Bank of Scotland issues its own notes and coins.

Задание 10 № 1736 тип 10

Kevin enjoyed waking up in the morning. His window looked out on the green fields around. Their house was an American farmhouse though it looked more like an English cottage. It was Kevin's mother who had restyled the place. She came from England and wanted to have some of it in her new home.

The bean fields around belonged to their family. As the only child in the family, Kevin's father took up the family business and had never regretted it. He managed to take care of his fields all by himself, only with occasional help from his wife and his son. The farm was highly mechanized. There were all sorts of tractors, combines and other farming machines in their backyard. The father was skillful with them and mum too — she operated all the machines almost professionally. Kevin's help was needed too, especially now - his small brother had been born recently and mum was busy with the baby.

Right, Kevin was always ready to help but not today. Some of his school friends were going to visit him and that didn't happen very often. Living on a farm means some sort of isolation. You can't just see some of your classmates on the street. You can't walk around with them when you have an hour or two to spare. His mother drove Kevin to school and back every day and that was it — he spent every evening with his family. But today Max and Bob were coming and Kevin was going to enjoy his day off.

When the boys arrived, both Kevin and his father showed them around the farm. The boys were impressed when they learned how many beans the small family produced. Then the adults got busy with the barbecue and the boys went on exploring the farm land and the constructions there. Bob, who was crazy about archaeology, was absolutely fascinated with the old barn (амбар). It had never been used as a barn. Nobody had even entered it for years — the father kept some ancient farming equipment there.

With sincere interest Bob studied the old spades (лопаты), ploughs (плуги) and other ancient tools, the names of which Kevin did not know. Suddenly, Bob's eyes sparkled: 'Where did you get it from?' In his hand he held something that looked like a spade but it was much smaller and the design was different.

'I have no idea what it is,' Kevin looked puzzled. 'It was probably my grandfather or great-grandfather who left it here.'

'But I suspect that it was made much earlier than your great-grandparents lifetime,' Bob looked really excited. 'Can I take it with me? To show it to the people in the Archaeology society?'

Kevin shrugged his shoulders. 'I don't think anyone minds if we take everything from here. Father would be glad to get rid of the stuff. He has always wanted to remove this barn completely but still cannot find time to do it.'

'Do not be in too much of a hurry to do it,' Bob gave him a wink. 'Who knows... this ancient stuff will probably make your name famous.'

Kevin enjoyed waking up in the morning. His window looked out on the green fields around. Their house was an American farmhouse though it looked more like an English cottage. It was Kevin's mother who had restyled the place. She came from England and wanted to have some of it in her new home.

There were all sorts of tractors, combines and other farming machines in their backyard. The father was skillful with them and mum too — she operated all the machines almost professionally. Kevin's help was needed too, especially now - his small brother had been born recently and mum was busy with the baby.

Задание С1

You have 30 minutes to do this task. You have received a letter from your English-speaking pen friend Ben.

... I am very busy now preparing for my exams but yesterday I went to the cinema with my friends. We saw a new film about Sherlock Holmes. You've probably seen it too. ...

What kinds of films do you like? Where do you prefer watching films — in the cinema or at home and why? What would you make a film about if you had a chance?...

Write her a letter and answer her 3 questions. Write 100–120 words. Remember the rules of letter writing.

Пояснение.

Dear Ben,

Thanks for your last letter, and sorry I couldn't answer you earlier, exams as well. No, I haven't seen that film yet.

I like to watch many kinds of movies: from old ones to the moderns. My favorite genre is thriller, because it's very scary and unpredictable. I watch films almost every day at home, but I have to admit that watching them on wide screen is much cooler. All the special effects and the way the actors play seems way more impressive. If I make a film one day it will be related with biography, my childhood and the people who surround me. In other words It will be very intimate.

Write back soon.

Best wishes,

Emma

The word 'tsunami' can be translated from Japanese as 'big wave'. It describes a natural process that can be dangerous for people and their homes. Most of the huge waves appear after earthquakes. Most waves are born in the Indian and the Pacific Oceans where volcanoes are active. The mass of water rises from the bottom of the ocean and moves to the shore. It moves at the speed of a plane and can be up to 40 meters high. The wave is very powerful and dangerous. In 2004, a tsunami happened in the Indian Ocean. It was one of most terrible natural disasters in history. It hit 14 countries bordering the Indian Ocean. Thousands of people were killed or went missing.

You are going to give a talk about travelling. You will have to start in 1.5 minutes and will speak for not more than 2 minutes.

Remember to say:

- why most people like travelling;
- which season is the best for travelling in your opinion;
- what means of transport are the best, and why.

You have to talk continuously.

Пояснение.

Today many people around the world choose travelling as the main hobby. They save money for such trips. And then they travel to another city or country with friends. I think that most people like travelling because it gives them an opportunity to meet new people. Also it's a good chance to find out interesting historical facts. In my opinion, summer is the best season for travelling because there are many different offerings and discounts in this time of the year. Also the majority of people are busy the whole year. That is why summer is the only time when they can go somewhere. I think that buses and trolleybuses are the most convenient means of transport because they allow people to move all over the town. In conclusion, I think that travelling is great and all people should use an opportunity to visit other countries.
