Пояснение.

Dialogue A.

A: Today we are going to talk about how to draw a portrait. You know lots of artists who painted portraits, don't you?

B: Yes, we do. I know some of them also painted self-portraits, but I'm not sure what it means...

A: It means that the artist created the portrait of himself. We'll talk about that type of portrait later.

B: Are we going to draw self-portraits too?

A: Yes, we are. But much later on. Otherwise I'm afraid they'll look like self-caricatures.

Dialogue B.

A: Oh, Toni! Here you are at last!

B: Hi, Jack. Sorry for keeping you waiting. The flight was delayed 30 minutes and then it took me some time to find my suitcase in baggage reclaim.

A: Let me help you with it. Oh, it's heavy! And what's in the package?

B: Careful! It's the picture I bought in Rome. The artist is unknown, but it looks valuable. And the colours are very nice.

A: If it were really valuable, they wouldn't have let you through customs. Anyway, let's go, the taxi's waiting.

Dialogue C.

A: I really think we should change something here. Our flat looks too traditional, too boring. It's very old-fashioned.

B: Ok, ok, don't get so excited about it. What would you like to change?

A: Everything. We can start with my room. If we paint the walls yellow, it'll look nicer. And we need to buy new furniture.

B: But I like the furniture there. I don't mind painting the walls but let's leave the furniture as it is...

Dialogue D.

A: Can I help you?

B: Yes, please. I want to buy a present for my nephew. He's turning eight next Saturday.

A: Well, we have a wide choice of educational toys. What's he keen on?

B: He likes to play active games... And he likes to draw...

A: Have a look at this kids' painting set then. It has several colouring books, watercolours, brushes and pencils. It's a great present and it's not very expensive either.

A–1: Today we are going to talk about how to draw a portrait. You know lots of artists who painted portraits, don't you?

B–2: If it were really valuable, they wouldn't have let you through customs. Anyway, let's go, the taxi's waiting.

C–5: I really think we should change something here. Our flat looks too traditional, too boring. It's very old-fashioned.

D–3: B: Yes, please. I want to buy a present for my nephew. He's turning eight next Saturday.

A: Well, we have a wide choice of educational toys.

Пояснение.

Speaker A. I'm an only child in the family and I've always envied my friends who have brothers and sisters. I really think that it's great when children can play together and support each other — it teaches them how to take care of other people, how to be kind and helpful. Brothers and sisters usually support each other when they become adults. I think it's very comforting to feel that support.

Speaker B. One of my earliest childhood memories is about a steel set of medical instruments. Our grandmother told us that it had belonged to her father who had got it from his teacher — a famous doctor. During the war my great granddad was wounded and taken to hospital. Still weak he helped the doctor during the operations as there were no nurses. Now the set of medical tools is kept in my house.

Speaker C. I grew up in a large family. Now my brother and my sisters are adults and we all have families of our own. However, every year they come to our house for our mother's birthday. It's always been a very important event for us. When we were kids, we designed different creative presents for her and prepared different performances. We still do the same! We feel like children again and Mum looks young and happy at such moments.

Speaker D. I have very happy childhood memories. We lived in the country, and now I often dream about our pretty house and our nice garden. Our parents spent lots of time with us and we, children, could always ask them for help, advice or just share our worries with them. Now I'm a student and live away from my family in a big city. I often feel lonely and I wish my childhood years could come back for a while.

Speaker E. When I was a child, we lived in the country and I often helped my parents on the farm. It was hard work but I enjoyed it because my father made it look like fun. We grew beans and sold them. Now the farm belongs to me and my brother, and it differs a lot from the farm of my childhood. For the most part jobs are mechanized. We use computers to control the process of crop growing. Our children find it all interesting and make plans on how to make the farm even more efficient.

A–1: I've always envied my friends who have brothers and sisters. I really think that it's great when children can play together and support each other.

B–5: Our grandmother told us that it had belonged to her father who had got it from his teacher — a famous doctor. During the war my great granddad was wounded and taken to hospital.

C–3: However, every year they come to our house for our mother's birthday. It's always been a very important event for us.

D–6: I often feel lonely and I wish my childhood years could come back for a while.

E–2: Now the farm belongs to me and my brother, and it differs a lot from the farm of my childhood. For the most part jobs are mechanized.

- Oh, Thomas! You are early today, are you all right? How are you feeling, darling?
- Don't worry, I'm fine. We just don't have IT class on Mondays anymore. It moves on Fridays, but I forgot to tell you. And the day was really good.
- I'm glad to hear that. How did you manage with the math's test?
- I did well, I think. It wasn't really difficult.
- You must be very hungry, you've left your lunch box on the kitchen table today.
- Oh, yes. I discovered this on the lunch break. It was a great disappointment.
- Did you eat in the canteen?
- No, I didn't like the food there, you know that.
- And I don't have anything ready for you at the moment. I've just come in. it was a hard day, lots of customers, everyone's looking for Christmas gifts. But if you wait a while, I'll cook spaghetti.
- Don't worry, mom. I just get my lunch box. I'll eat what's there and we'll have dinner later when dad comes home.
- Ok, if that's what you want. And remind me, what time do you plan to finish work tomorrow?
- The shop closes at 6 p.m., why?
- Your cousin Diana called, she's arriving tomorrow at 8 p.m. and she asked if you could pick her up from the airport.
- Oh, it's a 2 hours drive there and the same time back again. But, ok. I'll set off to the airport straight from work.
- And how about buying Christmas gifts? Are we going to put it off?
- Looks like it. But don't worry, it's still a week before Christmas. We'll have time to buy you a snowboard. That's what you are worrying about, isn't it?
- Yes, actually I worry about arrange with some friends for they could teach me how to ride it. And as an exchange I'll teach them how to ski.
- I see. You'll get your present on time, don't worry. And how the forecast sais this winter will be very good for all that kind of fun in the snow. They promise the nicest and the snowiest winter in years.
- Well. I felt so disappointed about the weather last year, remember that?
- Yeah. It was very unreliable. Snow, rain, sled, slush.
- And I practically had no chance to ski.
- Let's hope you'll make it this year.

Задание 9 № 648 тип 9

Прочитайте тексты и установите соответствие между текстами A–G и заголовками 1–8. В ответ запишите цифры, в порядке, соответствующем буквам. Используйте каждую цифру только один раз. В задании есть один лишний заголовок.

1. Worrying time statistics
2. Hidden dangers
3. New communication opportunities
4. Communication problems in real life
5. Different opinions
6. The best social networking site
7. Time eaters
8. Prospects in education

A. The popularity of social networking sites such as Vkon-takte, Facebook, MySpace, and Classmates has risen more than four times from 2005 to 2009. Many users say these sites are good for our society, but others are sure that there are more dangers in them than benefits. Your attitude to such websites depends on your age, job, interests and way of life.

B. Social networks promote communication with friends and family, they give people necessary and useful computer skills and teach them to express their ideas in a clear way. Another thing is that the sites let people create new relationships and reconnect with old friends. In every way, more communication, even online, makes connections stronger.

C. Social networking sites make people spend more time online and less time communicating face-to-face. The sites have many time-wasting activities. You stay online longer than you planned and do nothing serious or important. Experts say that teenagers spend about nine hours every week on social networking sites.

D. A big risk about social networks is that teenagers are careless. They don't worry that their personal information and photos could be open to lots of people. Also the sites don't guarantee that their registered members are who they say they are. If a person says he is James Burns, a college student, we have to believe him. We cannot check his real name or occupation.

E. Psychologists say that social networking sites can have serious disadvantages. It is hard for children to have real conversations and make friends. They become selfish personalities and lose interest in real life. Parents spend less time with their children and all members of the family spend less time with each other because they are using the Internet instead of communicating in person.

F. Internet users spend most of their time on social networks and blogs. Users in the USA spend about five and a half hours every month on their favourite site. And the number is growing. Russians spend 6.6 hours monthly on social networking sites. It is more than people in any other country. For example, in Europe it is 3.7 hours a month.

G. New research shows that social networking sites can be used in schools. Teachers should find ways to use them in class. It would help students to learn how to get information from Internet resources and share it with classmates. Students would also be able to express themselves creatively and present themselves better.

The Best Job in the World

Have you ever heard of the Great Barrier Reef? It is the world's largest coral reef system along the eastern coast of Australia. In February 2009 an extraordinary position was advertised by the Australian Tourism Office. The advertisement ran that the Great Barrier Reef needed a caretaker for half a year. It was for a special person who would look after the Reef.

The job offered a large salary, free accommodation in a luxury villa, and transportation there and around the islands. All expenses would be paid: the winner wouldn't need to spend any extra money on anything.

The job's duties were pretty simple. You could only dream of such requirements. First, the person had to speak English and swim well. Second, on the island his responsibility included writing a weekly Internet blog. That's right, weekly, not even daily! The job description also required the successful applicant to explore the islands of the Great Barrier Reef, swim, make friends with the locals and generally enjoy the tropical climate and lifestyle. A real dream!

Within the first 2 days of the contest, the tourism office received more than seven thousand online applications. All told, 34,000 people of all different nationalities applied. Each made and presented a 60-second video resume. They had to be creative and they were. In the end 16 people were chosen, who flew to Australia for the final selection. The candidates were interviewed and the winner was Ben Southall from the UK.

Ben greatly enjoyed the dream job he had got. He realised that people knew very little about planet earth and its treasures. Living in big cities, they forgot how important the flora and fauna of this world were. Every time Ben went outdoors, he could discover something new. "Every time I dived or went underwater, I forgot about all the troubles above water and concentrated on living in the moment. It was a good way to clean the mind and build respect for the natural world," Ben said.

Ben's life on the island was not just fun. It was very busy, busier than most people imagined, and certainly busier than Ben himself had imagined. He worked seven days a week and up to 19 hours a day. The Best Job included travelling to over 60 islands of the Reef almost every day. It was not just looking after the Reef, Ben had a lot of meetings, press conferences and interviews. He was getting a lot of attention all the time and he couldn't get away from it. That was probably the hardest part of the job.

Moreover, any adventure has a certain degree of risk. Swimming and diving on the Great Barrier Reef was not different. Ben had to deal with whales, sharks and other huge sea creatures. Surprisingly, the most dangerous thing was a small jellyfish about the size of a little finger. It's considered to be extremely poisonous and Ben was stung by it. He had to spend a couple of days in hospital but luckily recovered after a course of antibiotics.

Ben often says that the project has taught him a few valuable lessons. Working with the Internet is one of those jobs you can do 24 hours a day. The Best Job in the World

Have you ever heard of the Great Barrier Reef? It is the world's largest coral reef system along the eastern coast of Australia. In February 2009 an extraordinary position was advertised by the Australian Tourism Office. The advertisement ran that the Great Barrier Reef needed a caretaker for half a year. It was for a special person who would look after the Reef.

The job offered a large salary, free accommodation in a luxury villa, and transportation there and around the islands. All expenses would be paid: the winner wouldn't need to spend any extra money on anything.

The job's duties were pretty simple. You could only dream of such requirements. First, the person had to speak English and swim well. Second, on the island his responsibility included writing a weekly Internet blog. That's right, weekly, not even daily! The job description also required the successful applicant to explore the islands of the Great Barrier Reef, swim, make friends with the locals and generally enjoy the tropical climate and lifestyle. A real dream!

Within the first 2 days of the contest, the tourism office received more than seven thousand online applications. All told, 34,000 people of all different nationalities applied. Each made and presented a 60-second video resume. They had to be creative and they were. In the end 16 people were chosen, who flew to Australia for the final selection. The candidates were interviewed and the winner was Ben Southall from the UK.

Ben greatly enjoyed the dream job he had got. He realised that people knew very little about planet earth and its treasures. Living in big cities, they forgot how important the flora and fauna of this world were. Every time Ben went outdoors, he could discover something new. "Every time I dived or went underwater, I forgot about all the troubles above water and concentrated on living in the moment. It was a good way to clean the mind and build respect for the natural world," Ben said.

Ben's life on the island was not just fun. It was very busy, busier than most people imagined, and certainly busier than Ben himself had imagined. He worked seven days a week and up to 19 hours a day. The Best Job included travelling to over 60 islands of the Reef almost every day. It was not just looking after the Reef, Ben had a lot of meetings, press conferences and interviews. He was getting a lot of attention all the time and he couldn't get away from it. That was probably the hardest part of the job.

Задание С1

You have 30 minutes to do this task. You have received a letter from your English-speaking pen friend, John.

...I like summer because I can give as much time as I want to my hobby — reading. I know it sounds strange nowadays. Why do teenagers read less than their parents did? What kind of books do you like reading? What do you do in your free time?...

Write him a letter and answer his 3 questions. Write 100–120 words. Remember the rules of letter writing.

Пояснение.

St. Petersburg, Russia
November, 30

Dear John,

It's nice to hear from you. I didn't know that you like reading!

I think that nowadays teenagers read less than their parents because of the internet, computer games and social webs which take too much time. But I like reading and try to read regularly. I like to read short stories, because their final is usually unpredictable. Also I read some classic novels, in my opinion it's important to improve your erudition and vocabulary. Besides reading I do sport in my free time, and never forget to spend some amount of time with my friends.

I would like you to recommend me some book that you lately read and liked. Let me know the title!

Write me back.

Best wishes,

Emma

Задание С2

You are going to read the text aloud. You have 1.5 minutes to read the text silently, and then be ready to read it aloud. Remember that you will not have more than 2 minutes for reading aloud.

The Arctic Ocean is the smallest ocean of the world. It covers the northern polar region of the Earth. The Arctic region is a very cold place. The lowest recorded temperature there is minus 68 degrees. In spite of the cold, a lot of animals live on the Arctic ice. The polar bear is one of them. Now, due to global warming, the polar bear is in a serious trouble. The thing is that polar bears hunt seals and they need ice to do this. The bears wait for seals on the ice, hunt them in the water and go back to the shore. If the ice is too thin, it breaks under the bears' heavy bodies and they may drown. The situation is getting worse and some researchers say the ocean may become ice-free as soon as 2050.

You are going to give a talk about your dream job. You will have to start in 1.5 minutes and speak for not more than 2 minutes.

Remember to say:

- what job you would like to do when you grow up
 - who or what influenced your decision
 - what aspects of the job you like most, and why
- You have to talk continuously.

Пояснение.

I'd like to give a talk about my future job.

There are a lot of jobs that interest me and it's not easy to choose just one. I like different subjects at school but my favourite subjects are biology and chemistry. Also, I like communicating with people, so I believe my future job will be connected with medicine. When I grow up, I'm going to be a doctor. I know how difficult this job is because my mum and my grandfather are doctors. When they get together they sometimes talk about their work, discuss some problems. I think they have influenced my decision a lot. I like the fact that this job needs a lot of knowledge but most of all I like the fact that this job is very important in any society. I believe if I become a doctor, I will be able to help people and may even save someone's life. As I have already said, I realise that being a doctor is not easy, it takes a lot of training and practice, but it's one of the most rewarding jobs of all.

That's all I wanted to tell you about my future job. Thank you for listening.
