Диалог	A	B	C	D
Место действия

Пояснение.

Dialog A.

- Feeling tired?
- Yeah, I've been on the track for half an hour already.
- You are taking your fitness classes very seriously, don't you?
- I have to. I've put on five kilos of to the last 2 weeks. Too many banned cakes.
- Hmm, yeah, but if you exercise here regularly you'll be in good shape really soon.
- I'm also thinking about going swimming a couple of days a week.

Dialog B.

- I'm dying for a drink!
- I thought you liked dancing?
- I do. But I need a break. Let's have a drink and a sandwich.
- Ok. Chicken or tuna?
- Chicken. And a glass of mineral water, still.

Dialog C.

- So, what's wrong with you?
- I don't really know. But my feet hurts and it's going worse every day.
- When did you first feel the pain?
- Hmmm. 3 days ago. At first I thought it's because of my intensive courses in mu fitness club, I didn't pay too much attention, but yesterday we had a party and I had to leave almost at once as it was difficult not only to dance, but to walk.
- Well, we should x-ray your foot just to make sure everything is all right with the bones.

Dialog D.

- Where are we going now?
- To sport square!
- Gosh, you never done any sport!
- Right, so it's a good time to start.
- Because you put on some extra kilos?
- Mainly. But also because it's a mega sale in the sport square! I can buy everything in a half prize!

- A–5: feeling tired... fitness classes... 5 kilos... swimming.
 B–3: like dancing... mineral water still.
 C–4: getting worse... feeling pain... OK with bones...
 D–1: mega sale... good time to start.

Пояснение.

Speaker A. I enjoy reading but I don't usually have much time for it because there's lots of homework to do. Yesterday I borrowed a book from our school library. I wanted to read it for a while before going to sleep. But the book was really interesting, I got involved and put it aside only when I had read it up to the very end. In the morning, I wasn't able to get up on time so I missed the school bus and got to school thirty minutes after the bell had gone.

Speaker B. I like reading, especially historical novels. That's why I know more than most of my classmates. Our teacher often asks me to give presentations to the whole class. I may spend hours in the library or searching the Internet for information on some historical event or some historical personality. Some of my friends think that it's boring but it's incredibly interesting. I'm considering taking History as my major at university.

Speaker C. Our class is very united and we often help each other in school and in life. Yes, I'm very lucky that the people around me are friendly and supportive and there's no bullying or fighting in class. My friends have different interests but they all are very nice people. There are those who like science, those who like sports and those who like arts but everyone enjoys school parties and school trips.

Speaker D. It was shocking news when my parents told me about their decision to move to another city. I was completely against it. I didn't want to leave my school — I had so many friends there! I'd just joined the school volleyball team, the best team in the area! But there was no choice — my parents had to move because of their jobs. They have good jobs but we have to move too often.

Speaker E. I have lots of friends and most of them are my classmates. We often do homework, work in a library or do sports together. Our school is a good place for doing sports — we have a gym, a football pitch, a swimming pool and even a tennis court. The swimming pool is not very large but it's enough for practicing different swimming strokes and for water aerobics classes. I wish we had a little skate park, too!

A–6: But the book was really interesting, I got involved and put it aside only when I had read it up to the very end. In the morning, I wasn't able to get up on time so I missed the school bus and got to school thirty minutes after the bell had gone.

B–4: I'm considering taking History as my major at university.

C–2: I'm very lucky that the people around me are friendly and supportive and there's no bullying or fighting in class. My friends have different interests but they all are very nice people.

D–5: It was shocking news when my parents told me about their decision to move to another city. I was completely against it. I didn't want to leave my school.

E–3: Our school is a good place for doing sports — we have a gym, a football pitch, a swimming pool and even a tennis court.

Jessica is inviting Neil to

- 1) a beach party.
- 2) a birthday party.
- 3) a school party.
- 4)

Пояснение.

Jessica: Hey, Neil, wait up! I've been looking for a chance to talk to you. Any plans for the weekend?

Neil: Hi, Jessica! I don't have any big plans. What's up?

Jessica: Alice is having a birthday party. She would like us to come. She said she had tried calling you, but you hadn't answered. And I tried calling you several times, too.

Neil: Oh! I've got a new phone number, sorry. And a new cell phone. I don't know where my old phone is. I was shopping the day before yesterday and had a coffee in the shopping centre. It looks as if I left it there. Anyway, I'd love to go. It sounds like fun. When is it?

Jessica: It's this Saturday at 5pm at my house. Alice can't have it at her place.

Neil: Can't she? Why not?

Jessica: They're moving house. They want to live closer to the beach.

Neil: That's great. Alice is so lucky. I've always wanted to live next to the beach too. I go there every day to windsurf in any weather. If I lived closer to the beach, it would save lots of time...

Jessica: That's ironical, Alice doesn't like either windsurfing or beach volleyball. The only sport she does is jogging twice a week. Anyway, getting back to her birthday, we are planning to have all the fun at my place. So ... this Saturday, at 5 pm.

Neil: This Saturday...uhm...Listen, Jessica I promised to look after Kate, my younger sister. Mum's away on business and she's coming back this weekend. Dad's meeting her at the airport, so there's nobody to stay at home with Kate in the evening.

Jessica: Well, why don't you bring her along? It would be fun. My grandma would really like that. I'm sure.

Neil: Really? That would be great. Shall I bring anything? I mean food or drinks?

Jessica: No need. I've already planned and ordered everything. We're going to have pizza, salads and cakes and we're going to play some games. Then we may watch a video and have fireworks in the garden. Oh , and could you bring a few CDs?

Neil: Yes, sure. I've got a large collection and I'll find something everybody likes. Have you bought a present for Alice yet?

Jessica: Not yet, I can't decide what to get her.

Neil: We need to think about what she might like. If I remember rightly, she likes music and reading. She's also a big football fan.

Jessica: Exactly. I don't think a simple book or a CD will be any good. It's too ordinary and uninteresting. Besides, I'm sure, she's got lots of that kind of stuff. I think we need to be creative and come up with something unusual, something that would be a surprise to Alice.

Neil: You know, maybe we could get her some concert tickets. Do you know her favourite groups?

Jessica: Neil, you're a genius! What an idea! Her favorite band is coming here soon. We'll get Alice tickets to their show, she'll be so happy!

Neil: And some flowers, too! I know Alice loves pink roses. Together with the tickets they'll make a perfect present, don't you think, Jessica?

Jessica: Absolutely.

Задание 9 № 648 тип 9

Прочитайте тексты и установите соответствие между текстами A–G и заголовками 1–8. В ответ запишите цифры, в порядке, соответствующем буквам. Используйте каждую цифру только один раз. В задании есть один лишний заголовок.

1. Worrying time statistics
2. Hidden dangers
3. New communication opportunities
4. Communication problems in real life
5. Different opinions
6. The best social networking site
7. Time eaters
8. Prospects in education

A. The popularity of social networking sites such as Vкон-takte, Facebook, MySpace, and Classmates has risen more than four times from 2005 to 2009. Many users say these sites are good for our society, but others are sure that there are more dangers in them than benefits. Your attitude to such websites depends on your age, job, interests and way of life.

B. Social networks promote communication with friends and family, they give people necessary and useful computer skills and teach them to express their ideas in a clear way. Another thing is that the sites let people create new relationships and reconnect with old friends. In every way, more communication, even online, makes connections stronger.

C. Social networking sites make people spend more time online and less time communicating face-to-face. The sites have many time-wasting activities. You stay online longer than you planned and do nothing serious or important. Experts say that teenagers spend about nine hours every week on social networking sites.

D. A big risk about social networks is that teenagers are careless. They don't worry that their personal information and photos could be open to lots of people. Also the sites don't guarantee that their registered members are who they say they are. If a person says he is James Burns, a college student, we have to believe him. We cannot check his real name or occupation.

E. Psychologists say that social networking sites can have serious disadvantages. It is hard for children to have real conversations and make friends. They become selfish personalities and lose interest in real life. Parents spend less time with their children and all members of the family spend less time with each other because they are using the Internet instead of communicating in person.

F. Internet users spend most of their time on social networks and blogs. Users in the USA spend about five and a half hours every month on their favourite site. And the number is growing. Russians spend 6.6 hours monthly on social networking sites. It is more than people in any other country. For example, in Europe it is 3.7 hours a month.

G. New research shows that social networking sites can be used in schools. Teachers should find ways to use them in class. It would help students to learn how to get information from Internet resources and share it with classmates. Students would also be able to express themselves creatively and present themselves better.

Пояснение.

A–5: Many users say these sites are good for our society, but others are sure that there are more dangers in them than benefits.

B-3: Social networks promote communication with friends and family, they give people necessary and useful computer skills and teach them to express their ideas in a clear way.

C-7: Social networking sites make people spend more time online and less time communicating face-to-face. The sites have many time-wasting activities.

D-2: A big risk about social networks is that teenagers are careless.

E-4: It is hard for children to have real conversations and make friends.

F-1: Users in the USA spend about five and a half hours every month on their favourite site. And the number is growing. Russians spend 6.6 hours monthly on social networking sites. It is more than people in any other country. For example, in Europe it is 3.7 hours a month.

G-8: New research shows that social networking sites can be used in schools.

Hidden Treasure

One hot summer day in the 1950s, Donna and her cousin Toby, who lived next door, decided to have a little adventure. At the age of six, it seemed a good idea to them. Donna's mother was working in the garden and Toby's mother was baking bread in the kitchen to share with their neighbours while it was still warm.

That day, the children were bored and restless and wanted to do something exciting. Toby suggested finding hidden treasure. He thought they would bury Donna's mother's rings and later take them out of the ground. It would be like finding treasure. At first, Donna was not sure as she felt it could get them in trouble. But Toby seemed older and wiser, so she agreed.

They knew Donna's mother kept her rings on the dressing table in her bedroom. She had a beautiful pearl ring and a diamond wedding ring that she wore only for special occasions. So the children thought she wouldn't miss the rings if they took them for a while. They got upstairs, entered the tidy room, which smelled of the mother's perfume, and removed the rings from their special box.

Toby put the rings into his pocket and they both ran to the big field where they often played. Toby thought it was an excellent place where nobody would find the rings. They made a hole in the ground with the help of a kitchen spoon and put the secret treasure inside. Soon they heard their mothers calling them for lunch and ran back home. For some unknown reason, they forgot to go back to dig up the rings and to return them to their place.

About a week later, Donna's mother found out that her rings were missing and was furious. From the look on Donna's face she guessed the girl knew the truth. So Donna had to tell the whole story of her adventure with cousin Toby. At that moment she realized the seriousness of her crime.

The mother demanded that Donna should show her the place. They went to the field to dig up the rings. Unfortunately Donna couldn't remember exactly where they were buried. They tried several places without success till it was absolutely dark. They kept trying to find the rings for many days but eventually they gave up. Amazingly, the mother forgave Donna. She never scolded her nor even reminded her about the lost rings. She knew that her daughter didn't mean any harm - she was just a small child and did it for a game. Everyone, however, silently hoped the 'hidden treasure' would be found someday.

Six years later, the field was planted with rows of little pine trees for a Christmas sale. One day, the farmer found a pearl ring in the ground and told a neighbour, who remembered the story of the lost rings. He handed the ring over to Donna's mother. The discovery made her extremely happy. They started a new search but the other ring was never found.

Many years later Donna noticed her younger sister was wearing the pearl ring. When she asked her mother why she had given it to her sister, she answered, 'Well, I always planned to give my best rings to my daughters some day and you were supposed to get the diamond wedding ring!'

Donna and Toby were relatives.

Задание С1

You have 30 minutes to do this task. You have received a letter from your English-speaking pen friend, Ann.

...Oh, my friend is so charming! Everybody in the class is ready to help her. But, you know, I sometimes think she's just using people to get what she wants...

...What kind of person is your best friend? When and where did you meet? How do you spend time together?...

Write her a letter and answer her 3 questions. Write 100–120 words. Remember the rules of letter writing.

Пояснение.

St. Petersburg, Russia
November, 30

Dear Ann,

Thanks for your last letter, and sorry I couldn't answer you earlier.

My best friend's name is Olga. She is a very helpful, intelligent and caring person. I met her at school many years ago. We are in the same class and we are sharing the school desk with her. We spend a lot of time together at school, and we always walk a bit after classes. Sometimes we go to a cafe and do the school tasks: she helps me with math and I assist her in English. During the weekends we go to the movies or to a shopping center. We never had any quarrel and I'm glad I have such a wonderful friend!

Write back soon.

Best wishes,

Nick

Задание С2

You are going to read the text aloud. You have 1.5 minutes to read the text silently, and then be ready to read it aloud. Remember that you will not have more than 2 minutes for reading aloud.

Snowdon is the highest mountain in Wales. It is located in a national park. It stands at 1085 metres above sea level, and it is often described as the busiest mountain in Great Britain. Snowdon is very popular with tourists. If you are strong and brave enough to get to the top, you can enjoy wonderful views from there. On a clear day, you can see as far as Ireland! During the summer months there is a café at the top. There, tourists can get a welcome cup of tea, or soup if the weather is cold. If you feel too tired to walk back, you can always take the train down the mountain. The mountain railway was built in 1896. It is safe, and there have never been any accidents on this route.

Задание С3Task 2 (2–3 minutes)

Your family are coming home from holiday and you are waiting for your flight to Moscow in Barcelona International Airport. Your parents are busy in the duty-free shops. You are getting bored in the lounge and go to the gaming area where several people are playing at the play stations. A boy / girl of your age is sitting in the corner, looking obviously bored.

- Meet him / her and find out where he / she is from.
- Answer your new acquaintance's questions about your native place (country / region / city / village). Give as much information as possible.
- Recommend to your new acquaintance some places of interest if he / she comes to Russia one day.
- Suggest playing a computer game together; react appropriately to his / her reply.

You begin the conversation. The examiner will play the part of your airport acquaintance.

Remember to:

- introduce yourself;
- answer the questions;
- make a suggestion;
- be polite.

Пояснение.

SAMPLE CONVERSATION

Student: Hello. Do you mind if I sit here?

Interlocutor: No, not at all. Please sit down.

Student: My name is ... (student's name). I'm from Russia.

Interlocutor: And I'm Adelita / Agosto. From Barcelona. Where in Russia do you live?

Student: In Tver. It's between Moscow and St Petersburg — it's a very nice city with a long history. It was founded in the 12th century and it was one of the richest and most important Russian cities. Tourists often come to our city to see our beautiful churches and lots of young people come to learn as we have colleges and universities there.

Interlocutor: Sounds great. I've never been to Russia, but I would like to go one day. What tourist attractions can you recommend seeing in your country?

Student: Well, if you come to Moscow, you should definitely see Red Square, the Kremlin and St Basil's Cathedral. They're in the very centre of Moscow and are very popular with tourists.

Interlocutor: Is it a historic place?

Student: Of course. Red Square dates from the 15th century. And the Cathedral was built a bit later, when Ivan the Terrible ruled the country. It's very beautiful.

Interlocutor: Yes, I've heard about it.

Student: Would you like to play at the play station with me by the way?

Interlocutor: I'd love to but my flight has just been announced. I have to go to the gate right now.

Student: Bye then. Have a nice flight.

Interlocutor: You too. It was good to meet you.

You are going to give a talk about weather and seasons. You will have to start in 1.5 minutes and will speak for not more than 2 minutes.

Remember to say:

- which of the four seasons you like most, and why;
- how the Earth's climate has changed recently;
- whether you trust the weather forecast, and why.

You have to talk continuously.

Пояснение.

I would like to start with the idea that weather is a very popular topic. I think that the majority of people hate a winter season because it's too cold. But I consider winter as the most gorgeous and beautiful time of the year because snow covers absolutely everything including big roofs and tall trees. As the result the view is fantastic. I enjoy walking on the streets in that time of the year. Nevertheless, I have all reasons to think that climate is rapidly changing. For example, winter has become shorter. I'm convinced that we should definitely do something to change the current situation. Speaking about weather forecasts, I would say that I trust them because they use scientific methods to determine the future weather. Of course, there is some inaccuracy. But most of the time predictions come true. In summary, I should say that climate is a very fragile system. We should not harm it.
