Пояснение.

Dialog A.

- Hi, I thought I was late.
- The bell is gone. But Ms Morgan isn't here yet.
- That's a piece of luck.
- I thought I was going to be late too. I was looking for my mobile phone which turned out to be on the bottom of my bag. I always feel so nervous before tests.
- It's not only you. Have you managed to revise the vocabulary?
- As good as... Oh no! I forgot all my essay!

Dialog B.

- What are you doing Tommy?
- Writing an essay about mobile phones in our life. It seems like our French teacher can't do without our clumsy paragraphs full of mistakes.
- It's very good of her, I think. Writing essays regularly is very useful for learning the language.
- Yeah, probably.
- I hope you'll be through with your homework by 8. Mrs. Clock and Sandra are coming for dinner.
- That explains the delicious smell from the kitchen. Yes, I'll do my best. Now I'm motivated.

Dialog C.

- Who are you texting?
- A friend. She is still at school and I want her to find out about my test result.
- Are you heading home now?
- Yes. If we're lucky we will catch the 4 o'clock bus. I would really like to catch it or we'll get cold. It's so windy today.
- Look, there it is. It's a bit earlier today or my watches a bit slow.

Dialog D.

- Pleas, stop texting. You're distracting me!
- There is nothing to be distracted from, it's so boring! And if you went for the pop corn I would have left ages to go.
- But I like it! It's a classical psychological drama and I have to write an essay about it for my French course.
- Are you saying that I have to watch it for the very end? Then you buy me another bucket of the pop corn.
- Agreed. But turn off your mobile phone right now! Ok?

A–3: Miss Morgan isn't here yet... I'm nervous before the test.

B–4: What are you doing, Tony (mother)... smells in the kitchen... free for dinner.

C–5: windy today... the bus is coming.

D–1: boring drama, popcorn... watch to a very end.

Пояснение.

Speaker A. Travelling through deserts has always been a life-threatening activity but people had to do it for trade and exploration. In the old days, trade was conducted by caravans of camels. The camel was chosen because it is able to carry heavy loads and do without water for several days. The load was usually divided into two parts and attached to the camel's back. Nowadays there are high speed roads crossing deserts in different directions but native people still rely on camels.

Speaker B. The desert is often associated with dead land, but it's not. I'm a geologist and I can say it's a fascinating place! Blue sky and endless sand dunes look fantastic! The sand is usually bright yellow but there are other colours, too. In Egypt, for example, there's The White Desert — the sand is absolutely white and looks like glittering snow. The poor deserts plants deserve all my admiration — for their strength and will to live.

Speaker C. At first sight the desert seems uninhabited but if you stay there longer, you'll see that it's home to many creatures. Reptiles seem to be quite happy there — it's their world. There're lots of them but they usually hide in the sand and are difficult to see. Some lizards and snakes also have camouflage or change their colour to blend in with the surroundings. Their main food is scorpions, spiders, insects, small mice and rats.

Speaker D. The burning sun of the desert can kill a careless traveller in several hours. That's why if you get lost, don't panic but find a shelter and wait for help. Remember that walking will make you feel very tired and thirsty, so it's better to stay where you are. Draw large signs on the sand or fix a bright piece of clothing on a tall cactus so that your sign can be seen from the air — the rescue plane will be able to find you sooner.

Speaker E. The desert is a dangerous place and people should be careful when travelling through it. Everyone knows this. However, we often forget that the desert can be damaged, too — some people's activities are very harmful to it. Deserts are becoming polluted as people use them as dumping grounds for rubbish and industrial waste. Off-road desert car races ruin the delicate soil layer and kill plants that take a very long time to grow. Animals hiding in the sand may be killed too.

A–2: The camel was chosen because it is able to carry heavy loads and do without water for several days. The load was usually divided into two parts and attached to the camel's back.

B–6: The desert is often associated with dead land, but it's not. I'm a geologist and I can say it's a fascinating place!

C–3: Some lizards and snakes also have camouflage or change their colour to blend in with the surroundings. Their main food is scorpions, spiders, insects, small mice and rats.

D–1: Remember that walking will make you feel very tired and thirsty, so it's better to stay where you are.

E–4: The desert is a dangerous place and people should be careful when travelling through it. Everyone knows this.

Kate: Hi, Frank. Why not? You promised! It's not just a party, it's my birthday.

Kate: Oh, yes, I understand. I'm sure she'll be fine.

Frank: Yes, she will. And have you got any plans for tonight?

Kate: No, I haven't yet. Any suggestions?

Frank: How about the pizzeria? They've got some new things on the menu and it's the closest place to eat.

Kate: Oh, no. I love pizza, but I've been to the pizzeria four times during this week. If it goes on, I won't be able to wear any of my jeans.

Frank: I don't think you should worry about that as long as you keep doing athletics. Even watching all that running and jumping on TV helps burn extra calories.

Kate: I wish!

Frank: Anyway, walking my dog is another idea for the evening.

Kate: Oh, Frank, you have a dog? I never knew.

Frank: I only got him a week ago. It's a long story I'll tell you some other time.

Kate: And what's your dog like? Something large and powerful like a bulldog?

Frank: No. I've always liked huge, smart dogs; that's true, but mine is nothing like that. It's just a small, silly puppy.

Kate: Oh, I like cute puppies! I want to see him. What time do you usually walk him?

Frank: At seven in the morning and I'm more flexible in the evening. He likes walking in our park.

Kate: In the morning and in the evening? I don't think it's enough. He needs a walk around lunchtime too.

Frank: Yes, but I can't do it more often unfortunately. So, when and where shall we meet? Our usual meeting place at the bus stop is not a very good choice now. There are too many people there and my poor puppy may get frightened.

Kate: I'll be waiting for you both at the park entrance at seven.

Frank: Fine. We'll get some takeaway there.

Прочитайте тексты и установите соответствие между текстами A–G и заголовками 1–8. В ответ запишите цифры, в порядке, соответствующем буквам. Используйте каждую цифру только один раз. В задании есть один лишний заголовок.

1. The scientific explanation
2. The real shape
3. A lucky sign
4. Some tips
5. Places without rainbows
6. A personal vision
7. A bridge between worlds
8. Impossible to catch

A. Two people never see the same rainbow. Each person sees a different one. It happens because the raindrops are constantly moving so the rainbow is always changing too. Each time you see a rainbow it is unique and it will never be the same! In addition, everyone sees colours differently according to the light and how their eyes interpret it.

B. A rainbow is an optical phenomenon that is seen in the atmosphere. It appears in the sky when the sun's light is reflected by the raindrops. A rainbow always appears during or immediately after showers when the sun is shining and the air contains raindrops. As a result, a spectrum of colours is seen in the sky. It takes the shape of a multicoloured arc.

C. Many cultures see the rainbow as a road, a connection between earth and heaven (the place where God lives). Legends say that it goes below the earth at the horizon and then comes back up again. In this way it makes a permanent link between what is above and below, between life and death. In some myths the rainbow is compared to a staircase connecting earth to heaven.

D. We all believe that the rainbow is arch-shaped. The funny thing is that it's actually a circle. The reason we don't see the other half of the rainbow is because we cannot see below the horizon. However, the higher we are above the ground, the more of the rainbow's circle we can see. That is why, from an airplane in flight, a rainbow will appear as a complete circle with the shadow of the airplane in the centre.

E. In many cultures there is a belief that seeing a rainbow is good. Legends say that if you dig at the end of a rainbow, you'll find a pot of gold. Rainbows are also seen after a storm, showing that the weather is getting better, and there is hope after the storm. This is why they are associated with rescue and good fortune. If people happen to get married on such a day, it is said that they will enjoy a very happy life together.

F. You can never reach the end of a rainbow. A rainbow is all light and water. It is always in front of you while your back is to the sun. As you move, the rainbow that your eye sees moves as well and it will always 'move away' at the same speed that you are moving. No matter how hard you try, a rainbow will always be as far away from you as it was before you started to move towards it.

G. To see a rainbow you have to remember some points. First, you should be standing with the sun behind you. Secondly, the rain should be in front of you. The most impressive rainbows appear when half of the sky is still dark with clouds and the other half is clear. The best time to see a rainbow is on a warm day in the early morning after sunrise or late afternoon before sunset. Rainbows are often seen near waterfalls and fountains.

Задание 10 № 568 тип 10

The Isle of Man

In the Irish Sea about 20 miles away from the UK you will find a beautiful island. This is the Isle of Man. The people of the island are called Manx and they speak the Manx language. The island occupies a mid-point in the Irish Sea and the British Isles – right between England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales.

The scenery of the Isle is varied. There are ranges of hills with green valleys between them, there are sandy beaches in the north which contrast with the rocky cliffs along the coasts. The island's only mountain is slightly over 600 metres high. An old legend says that from its top on clear days you can see six kingdoms: the island itself, Scotland, England, Ireland, Wales and Heaven.

The Isle of Man has the oldest parliament in the world. It is called the Tynwald and it has met regularly since 979. The Tynwald usually meets in the capital of the country. However, for one day every summer the Manx parliament gathers in a small village to celebrate Tynwald Day. It is the only day of the year when parliament is held in the open air. On this day government officials read a summary of all the laws that have been passed during the year in both the English and the Manx languages. There is entertainment before and after the ceremony and it is a real community event. In addition to that, an open air market is organised and different concerts are held in the evening. At the conclusion, the Manx national anthem is played and there is a firework display.

Another thing that attracts tourists to the Isle of Man is its rich and unique culture. Any visitor to the island will be particularly fascinated by the legends, folklore and the ancient traditions that are still kept alive today. Most tourists are happy to participate in the folk programmes.

In Manx mythology, the island's name comes from the name of a Celtic sea god. He ruled the kingdom and protected the land from invaders by covering the island with mist and thick fog. The island is also reputedly home to fairies who are very special. The Manx fairies are described as small and human-like. They wearred caps and green jackets and are naughty and wicked.

There's even a bridge called Fairy Bridge. Those who cross it are advised to say "hello fairies" in order to get good fortune. If the person doesn't greet the fairies, the fairies will become angry with him and may play a nasty trick on him. Some people go further in trying to pay their respects to the 'little people'. They do not just simply say hello, they also leave messages and gifts at the side of the road.

If you love reading about King Arthur and his knights, then a must-see place is Peel Castle. It was constructed in the 11th century by the Vikings and has a fascinating history. It is believed that Peel Castle was the location of Avalon – the legendary island where King Arthur's sword was made and where King Arthur was taken after being wounded.

In the past, the Isle of Man was an independent state.

In the Irish Sea about 20 miles away from the UK you will find a beautiful island. This is the Isle of Man. The people of the island are called Manx and they speak the Manx language. The island occupies a mid-point in the Irish Sea and the British Isles – right between England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales.

The scenery of the Isle is varied. There are ranges of hills with green valleys between them, there are sandy beaches in the north which contrast with the rocky cliffs along the coasts. The island's only mountain is slightly over 600 metres high. An old legend says that from its top on clear days you can see six kingdoms: the island itself, Scotland, England, Ireland, Wales and Heaven.

The Isle of Man has the oldest parliament in the world. It is called the Tynwald and it has met regularly since 979. The Tynwald usually meets in the capital of the country. However, for one day every summer the Manx parliament gathers in a small village to celebrate Tynwald Day. It is the only day of the year when parliament is held in the open air. On this day government officials read a summary of all the laws that have been passed during the year in both the English and the Manx languages. There is entertainment before and after the ceremony and it is a real community event. In addition to that, an open air market is organised and different concerts are held in the evening. At the conclusion, the Manx national anthem is played and there is a firework display.

Another thing that attracts tourists to the Isle of Man is its rich and unique culture. Any visitor to the island will be particularly fascinated by the legends, folklore and the ancient traditions that are still kept alive today. Most tourists are happy to participate in the folk programmes.

In Manx mythology, the island's name comes from the name of a Celtic sea god. He ruled the kingdom and protected the land from invaders by covering the island with mist and thick fog. The island is also reputedly home to fairies who are very special. The Manx fairies are described as small and human-like. They wearred caps and green jackets and are naughty and wicked.

There's even a bridge called Fairy Bridge. Those who cross it are advised to say "hello fairies" in order to get good fortune. If the person doesn't greet the fairies, the fairies will become angry with him and may play a nasty trick on him. Some people go further in trying to pay their respects to the 'little people'. They do not just simply say hello, they also leave messages and gifts at the side of the road.

If you love reading about King Arthur and his knights, then a must-see place is Peel Castle. It was constructed in the 11th century by the Vikings and has a fascinating history. It is believed that Peel Castle was the location of Avalon – the legendary island where King Arthur's sword was made and where King Arthur was taken after being wounded.

The island's landscape looks all the same everywhere.

*...I'm really excited about this weekend. Do you know why? I'm packing my bag now for the school camping trip!!! We're going to sleep in tents and cook food on an open fire. And I've never done that before!...
...What important things do you think I should take? Where have you been with your class? What other special events do you have at school? ...*

Write her a letter and answer her 3 questions. Write 100–120 words. Remember the rules of letter writing.

Пояснение.

Dear Ben,

Thanks for your last letter. I'm sorry for not writing you for so long. I was doing a school project.

It's great that you go to the trip, I'm sure that it will be very exciting. I believe that you should take a couple of extra socks, warm shoes and something to eat. Last month I was in a trip with my class, too. We were having a nice time nearby the local lake. We have different types of events at school. For example, we go to museums and theatres once a month and I enjoy such trips. Also we have different sport competitions.

Write back soon.

Best wishes,

Emma

You need to read the text aloud. You have 1.5 minutes to read the text silently, and then be ready to read it aloud. Remember that you will not have more than 2 minutes for reading aloud.

The ninth planet of the solar system was discovered not long ago. It happened in 1930. Scientists had been hunting for the planet for a long time. They had calculated its probable position but there was no proof that the planet really existed. It was too far away for the telescopes of that time to find it. It's worth mentioning that the first photos of the planet were taken by a very young researcher. He was only twenty-four and had no formal education in astronomy. However, he was deeply involved in the search for the ninth planet. The planet at the edge of the solar system was called Pluto, after the Roman god. The name for the planet was suggested by an 11-year-old British girl.

You are going to give a talk about your free time. You will have to start in 1.5 minutes and will speak for not more than 2 minutes.

Remember to say:

- whether you have a lot of free time, and why, or why not;
- what you enjoy doing in your free time;
- what your Sunday afternoons are like.

You have to talk continuously.

Пояснение.

I would like to start with the idea that most of the people have enough free time to relax. But the majority of them always complain that they need more and more. I think that you just have to be responsible for a wise usage of your free time. Speaking about me, I'm usually busy doing homework. But I still have enough free time to play with my friends. Or, for example, sometimes I prefer to watch a new movie in the cinema. I would say that I have enough free time to do everything that I've planned. During my recreation I enjoy having fun with my friends from school. We usually play football together. But my favourite day of the week is Sunday because I go to the pool in the early morning. Then I meet with my friends and we watch a movie together. In summary, I should say that having a lot of free time is great.
